Update from the C-Bar Trailride:

On March 29th, we had a trail ride at the C-Bar Ranch. The following morning we had 9 active members in attendance so an impromptu meeting was called to discuss the Vests. As such, we were able to dress the vest with chaps and also with a white shirt. We found that the dark brown vest clashes with the dark brown scarf that we use. The lighter colored tan vest that has been discussed previously was in the possession of Bruce and that one was voted in as our new vest choice. We plan to have a vest on hand at the upcoming meeting to give members a chance to determine what size they may require. Order arrangements will be discussed at the next meeting.

After the decision on the vest, several members made a motion to discuss the white shirts. Discussion was made noting the current white shirt selection with a button down collar was not "in the spirit of the old west" as our charter states. A motion was made to go with the more traditional western shirt in the white, pearl snap western version. This is a typical Wrangler White Dress shirt that most members should be familiar with. This also provides a snap down pocket to securely carry an ID card and folding money.

Also, the chap color was discussed and we have tabled the topic until more research can be done on a sample set of chaps. Alternately, we discussed collecting the newer sets of chaps that some members have and replace them with the older, closer matching chaps that we have on hand. Also mentioned was purchasing some of the chaps from former members that might be available.
