Old Business and New Business Updates

Upcoming Events:

June 13, 2009 – Waco Cattle Baron's Ball – starts at 7:00 PM. Details still forthcoming. We are currently trying to get a layout of the new event location so we can plan some sort of flag posting for the National Anthem at the beginning of the activities. If you can come to this event, please do so! We have about 6 people currently planning on attending.

July 4th, 2009 – 4th of July Parade – Highland Park: The 4th will be on a Saturday this year. Come out to this spectacular parade! We need a great turnout for this one to celebrate America's Independence! Details to follow.

Note: We are starting to get in to our active time of the year for CBB's and Parades. Most of the events are occurring on Saturday's so most should not have issues with these if we get them planned far enough out. We need to get good participation from the members of this posse so we can make a good showing at each event we attend.

REMINDER: Paint 'Em High – Take 3!

Brown chaps for everyone! The chaps look really good with the rest of our gear and the letters on the chaps really stand out! Those members that have not attended a recent event need to be sure and have their chaps masked off with masking tape so that they can be painted prior to our future events. If you need to make special arrangements to get them painted, please let one of the officers know and we will get you accommodated as best we can.
