Old Business and New Business Updates

The Vests are here!

We have the vests in stock and they are available for $29 (check or cash). Get your money to Laura Compston and you too can have your new vest!

Vest Update: The vests are a men's cut and are not very flattering on the women. So, the search is on for a woman's vest to go with the vests we have. Donna Weisberg and Kathy Sreenan have been looking at a couple of options. We look forward to an update at the meeting on their findings!

Upcoming Events:

The next event we have on our agenda is the National Day of the American Cowboy. This event will be in the Ft. Worth Stockyards on July 26th. The following link has details of the day's events:
